

Choose Claire Church for President

Committed to Leadership

Insist on accountability from the person you choose to represent you.

I have kept best practices from the past, maintained relationships and trust with the members, while trying to implement positive changes on your behalf.

Advocating with Integrity

Demand that the person you elect will accurately represent and amplify your voices.

I have established a reputation of professionalism in interactions with members and the Board; I have the experience to advocate passionately on your behalf.

Representing Effectively

Expect your President to listen carefully to what is needed and understand what is at stake.

I approach situations with thorough knowledge of the collective agreement and the ability to think and reason from multiple viewpoints.
